WHAT IS RHANAC

We are the Rental Housing Association of Northern Alameda County and we are a trade association for rental property owners and rental service providers. We have serviced the needs of our membership since 1939 and continue as the only non-profit, professional group representing the local rental housing industry in Northern Alameda County.

Associate Member Benefits

This Associate Membership is open to individuals or firms who provide products and services to rental housing providers. An Associate Member does not need to own or manage rental housing. Associate Membership includes our Referral Resource Center, Associate Member Directory Listings, Website Listing and a write-up in the business spotlight. Associate Members may sponsor member meetings, network, advertise and market their business. You will receive two magazines, "Rental Housing"* our local, monthly publication and "Perspectives" our state quarterly publication.
